DENIED OFFICIALLY.

Alleged Revelations Regarding M. Delcassee's Resignation.

Paris, Oct. 13.—The council of ministers was called suddenly today to discuss an international sensation which has been created by newspaper stories regarding the circumstances of the resignation of M. Delcassee, as foreign minister and revelations made of an English project to invade Germany in support of Delcassee's policy, in case war between France and Germany had resulted over the Moroccan clash.

While the official note which is usually issued after meetings of the cabinet does not mention this project as having been discussed an authorized denial of reports which had been published were made. Later an official denial of the Delcassee stories was issued.

Hyomei Cures Catarrh Breathe it—

No dangerous drugs or alcoholic concoctions are taken into the stomach when Hyomei is used. Breathed through the inhaler, the balsamic healing of Hyomei penetrates to the most remote cells of the nose and throat and thus kills the catarrhal germs, heals the irritated mucous membrane and gives complete and permanent cure.

Hyomei is the simplest, most pleasant and only guaranteed cure for catarrh that has been discovered. Complete outfit, $1.00; extra bottle, 50 cents.

For sale by Rickert & Wells, Red Cross Pharmacy.

HYDE WILL APPEAR.

Will Stand on Same Footing as Other Insurance Witnesses.

New York, Oct. 13.—Chas. E. Hughes, counsel to the legislative insurance inquiry, and Samuel Untermyer, counsel to James H. Hyde, had a conference in Mr. Hughes' office yesterday. While neither lawyer would discuss the matter, it is said, as a result of the meeting, Mr. Hyde will probably appear voluntarily as a witness before the investigating committee, though it is likely he will not be summoned in the immediate future. Mr. Hughes has gone on record as refusing to promise to Mr. Hyde any special immunity or privileges as a witness, and it is understood that when he appears to testify he will stand on the same footing as others.
